On the 8th of January, 1849, I was scated in my study at 130, Race street, Cincinnati, Ohio, when a boy entered and handed me a note which ran thus: "Office of the Atlantic, Lake and Mississippi Line, Cincinnati, Jan., Sth. natching up my caffe, I ran to the office said, and immediately transmitted a copy of lispatch to the sick man's father, living in usky City, distant 500 miles; which was aded to him in ten minutes, and before I had SOUND SENSE OF THE COMMUNITY left the office. Hurrying thence, I proceeded to the wharf to engage passage to Madison, Ia. on my way to Indianopolis. At 10 o'clock, the same evening I was on board a steamer, gliding down the waters of the beautiful Ohio. At 4 o'clock next morning, I was seated in the cars at Madison; and at 8 I was at the bedside of my sick cousin in Indianopolis, 80 miles from Madi-son, and 180 from Cincinnati which I had left the night before at 10 o'clock. Thus I took supper to Cincinnsti, and breakfrst 180 miles distant. On the same day at 5 r. s. I received a Dispatch from my friend of Sandusky then in Cincinnati; and at 8 o'clock next morning, he formed one of our number.

Now by observing these memoranda, you will be be that in less than 15 minutes, from the ne Mr. McCrea left his dispatch in the office at Indianopolis, it was communicated to another person, at the distance of the miles, would have required by ordinary transmission through the mails, at least 5 days. Suppose the Hanonibal and St. Joseph Rail Road to be in operation; (and if we have a Rail Road, remember we nust also have a Telegraph,) when the beginning of Winter comes, you are all in an agony suspense, and excitement, concerning the RISE AND FALL OF PORK; well, upon a certain day, there is a rise in Fork at Haunibal. In 5 minutes the news has reached Bloomington, per Lightning Line; at the same day the Blooming. In Pork mea, can have their huge masses of Hogs delivered in Hannibal, per Steam Wagon; and are just in time for the rise. Now contrast this, with the present state of affairs. A rise is declared by the II annibal pork men, and the news is transmitted to you, by mud wagon, i. e. the mail, and reaches you in two days. Then you are all in a bustle; packing pork—leading pork—rigging wagons, and yoking Oxen; and in the course of another day, through mud and sterm, you break for Hamibal. Very well; after 5 days incessant toil, and miscrable exposure, you reach the market. But lo! 4 days ago—whilst you was tailing. you reach the market. But lot 4 days ago-whilst you were toiling over the hills and through the bottoms-wearing out yourself, your team and wagon-there was a fall. And now; you must console yourself with a low price for your produce; exhaustion of body; and a weary dismal drive home. Thus you see, you, by having a Railroad, will acquire inestima
